

(3) The Trustees upon recovery of a resident whose appointment has been set aside on account of mental or other disease or infirmity may re-appoint him or her without giving previous notice of the vacancy.

(2) Upon setting aside the appointment of a resident the Trustees shall require and take possession of the room or rooms occupied by him or her.

(d) is suffering from mental or other disease or infirmity rendering him or her unsuited to remain a resident.

(c) has been appointed without having the required qualifications; or

(b) no longer has the required qualifications; or

(a) persistently or without reasonable excuse either disregards the regulations for the residents or disturbs the quiet occupation of the almshouses or otherwise behaves vexatiously or offensively; or

(1) The Trustees may set aside the appointment of any resident who in their opinion -

35. Rooms not to be let. No resident shall be permitted to let or part with the possession of the room or rooms allotted to him or her or except with the special permission of the Trustees to allow any person to share the occupation of the same or any part thereof.

34. Absence from almshouses. The Trustees shall require that any resident who desires to be absent from the almshouses for more than 28 days in any one year shall obtain the prior consent of the Trustees or of some officer of the Charity to be nominated by them.

33. Records. The Trustees shall provide and keep a book in which shall be entered the name, age and description of every person appointed to be a resident, the date of every appointment and the date and occasion of every vacancy. They shall also keep a register of all applications for appointment.

32. Appointments of residents. Every appointment of a resident shall be made by the Trustees at a special meeting.

31. Selection of residents. Residents shall be selected only after full investigation of the suitability and circumstances of the applicants.

30. Applications for appointment. All applications for appointment shall be made to the Trustees or their clerk in such manner as the Trustees shall require him or her to attend in person unless he or she is physically disabled or the Trustees are of opinion that special circumstances render this unnecessary. An applicant may be required to supply evidence of his or her qualification for appointment.

the last notice of a vacancy among the same class of residents has been published. Notices may be according to the form annexed hereto.