

DERBYSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL
CABINET MEMBER FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

3 December 2019

Report of the Executive Director for Children's Services

THOMAS WILLIAMS EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

1. Purpose of Report

To seek Cabinet Member approval for the nomination of Jayne Anders as the Derbyshire County Council representative on the Thomas Williams Educational Trust body of Trustees.

2. Information and Analysis

The Thomas Williams Educational Trust is a registered charity number 527004 serving the parishes of Clifton, Snelston and Roston in the Ashbourne area. The Trust makes small grants on an annual basis to children leaving school to further their education or to prepare them to enter a trade, profession or calling. It also provides funding towards religious education at Norbury Church of England Primary School.

The body of Trustees is made up of the rector or priest in charge of the Parish of Norbury and three representative Trustees appointed for a term of 3 years. One of those Trustees is a representative of Derbyshire County Council and the remaining two are from Norbury and Roston Parish Council. The Trust is classed as an outside body.

The current Derbyshire County Council representative has resigned and Councillor Simon Spencer as member for the Dovedale Division has nominating Jayne Anders as the new representative on the body of Trustees. Jayne is a local person who has lived in Roston village all her life. Her family has lived in the village for generations and Jayne worked at the local school. She therefore has strong connections with the local community and the school.
